QUAKERS BEATEN AGAIN

Penn Yields to State College in Battle on Gridiron.

MAUTHE FIRST OVER LINE

Penn Misses Chance to Score on Irresistible Rushes of Mercer and Minds.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2-Profiting by three crious mistakes the State Colloge eleven rious mistakes the State College eleven prevented Pennsylvania from scoring, the State College winning the game by the score of 14 to 0. A crowd of fully 15,009 spectators turned out to see the battle. in which Pennsylvania played the best game of the season.

The State College scored two touchdowns, one in the second and the other in the fourth quarter. In addition State College made another touchdown after a long forward pass, but it was disallowed In the first half Pennsylvania put up such a wonderful fight that State College was worrled, and was outrushed by Pennsylvania eighty-five yards to seventy-seven yards. But in the second half State Col-lege carried the ball from scrimmage a total of sixty-five yards to fifteen yards for Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania's first serious mistake came in the second period. Minds was called upon to punt from his 13-yard line. but the forwards failed to protect him and State College blocked the kick, Hansen recovering it for the visitors on the Quakers' 18-yard line. State College attempted to rush the ball across by line plunging, but four yards were all the heavy State College backs could get in two plunges, so quarterback Miller tried an end run. He was forced to sprint liagonally across the field, but he covered thirteen yards before he was forced out of bounds, a yard from the goal line. Here Pennsylvania braced splendidly. State College failed to gain an Inch on the first plunge and lost four yards on & fumble on the next play, but recovered the ball. From this point Mauthe went over the line in two plunges and then kicked the goal.

A few minutes before this tally Pennylvania had a chance to score. Getting the ball at midfield Mercer and Minds ushed it in irresistible style to inside State's 10-yard line. State braced and Marshall came in from the side lines and took Mercer's place, ostensibly to try a field goal. He made a forward pass in-Providence, Nov. 2.—Brown barely nosed out a victory over Vermont to-day by the score of 12 to 7. The Green Mountain gridiron warriors led all the way down to the final period of riary and frequently designed. Pennsylvania rushed the ball to State's 23-yard line, where it was lost on downs.

State scored its second touchdown shortly after the fourth period opened. Mauthe made a long punt, which Mercer could not reach. As the ball bounded the Quaker leader juggled it, and before he could recover it Wilson scooped it up for State and carried it to the 13-yard line before he was downed. Line plunging was slow work, and Miller, tried a forward pass over the goal line. Very took was slow work, and Miller, tried a ward pass over the goal line.
